(Non-Agenda Item)

The Public Safety Commission welcomes public input. Members of the public may address the Public Safety Commission by completing a public comment card and giving it to the Clerk prior to the meeting.

The public may address the Public Safety Commission on items that are not on the agenda. Pursuant to state law, the Public Safety Commission may not discuss or take action on issues not on the meeting agenda (Government Code Section 54954.2). The Chair reserves the right to place limits on duration of comments. Staff may be asked to follow up on such items.

Speakers will be called in the order in which the speaker request forms are received until the Public Comment period has expired.

The willful disruption of a Public Safety Commission meeting is a violation of California Penal Code Section 403. No individual addressing the Public Safety Commission will be allowed to engage in conduct that disrupts the Public Safety Commission meeting. Any individuals whose disruptive conduct requires that they be removed from the meeting will be excluded from further attendance at that meeting.
