

Overnight Parking Reminder

The San Marino Police Department does not offer overnight parking exemptions during the holiday season. The City ordinance does not address the issue of exemptions; therefore, it would not be appropriate to issue parking exemptions to some, while others would continue to purchase their overnight parking passes during this holiday period.